2026 Clean Energy Frontier Conference
sponsorship opportunities

“The Clean Energy Frontier Conference is where ideas turn into action—and where our collective impact begins. It starts here, in a region driving progress for Ontario and beyond—and I encourage you to be part of this momentum.”

James Scongack

Chair of the Board,
Nuclear Innovation Institute

The Clean Energy Frontier Conference

The Nuclear Innovation Institute’s Clean Energy Frontier Conference brings together community leaders, municipal staff and nuclear industry professionals for insightful sessions on economic development, local industry development and community engagement.

This annual event offers a unique opportunity for you to profile your company, joining together with collaborators and partners throughout the nuclear industry and local business community for the benefit of the region.
